

Launch Supreme Attack Against the Government Defenders at Irun Today

Foot Soldiers Move Forward To Join Fascist Advance Guard in the Streets of the Spanish Town of Behobia.

Behobia, France, Sept. 3.—Insurgent infantry, shielded by armored cars, launched a "supreme attack" against the government defenders at Irun today.

The foot soldiers pushed into action at 11 a. m., moving forward to join the Fascist advance guard in the streets of the Spanish town of Behobia, suburb of Irun.

Five armored cars, spraying machine gun fire, led the march down the exposed river road.

Behind the cars moved several hundred infantrymen using the lumbering machines as shields against the savage fire of government militiamen lying flat on the roofs of houses outside Behobia.

More than 1,000 rebel reinforcements were massed around a curve in the river road awaiting their turn to move down the battle-scarred highways.

Government batteries, meanwhile, poured shells onto rebel positions outside Irun as strong reinforcements rushed to aid haggard Socialist defenders.

Fusillades of shots between both artillery and infantry forces continued the battle near Behobia, Spain, throughout the night and early morning.

The Socialist troops, under the command of anarchists, labored frantically to improvise barricades in the streets of Irun in expectation of a renewal of the Fascist drive.

Anarchists seized command of the government forces after Socialist officers had proposed tentative surrender to the insurgents whose overpowering advance swept the militiamen before them.

A shell from the government artillery battery at Fuenterrabia landed near Birlatou, France, killing a farmer.

Three more French policemen were wounded during intermittent fighting near the Behobia International bridge.

Trenches dug by the government forces before their retreat last Irun were turned to advantage of the rebels who shifted the sandbag barricades for the protection of Fascist machine gun crews.

The insurgent command brought up cavalry contingents for the first time on the Irun front. Two hundred horsemen were ordered to join the rear guard for a patrol of roads behind the battle lines.

Sixty Hostages Shot.

Sixty hostages were marched out to a cemetery at Irun and shot by a government firing squad, reports reaching here today.

Two government planes tried to bomb the rebel troop concentration, but succeeded only in raising clouds of smoke. A rebel plane blasted a match factory at Behobia, but its bombs fell wide of the government defenses.

Government battles at Fuenterrabia switched their fire from San Marcel to the Bidassoa river road, but their aim was so bad that 20 shells fell in French territory.

French Gendarmes sent in emissary to stop them.

Opening a flanking movement, the rebel infantry squelched a government machine gun nest along the road to Irun with hand grenades.

Government forces attempted a counter-attack against the rebels in Behobia early today but gained no ground. The attack was supported by government artillery at Fuenterrabia. The shelling was ineffective because of poor marksmanship.

The forces of the supporters of the Madrid regime were depleted by wholesale desertions across the Bidassoa river into the French town.

The rebels drove the militiamen headlong into the Spanish town of Behobia from the last line of organized defenses and continued to pour shells and bombs into the disorderly columns.

Bullets from Fascist rifles and machine guns bounced into French positions as the insurgents rushed the government soldiers into the flowing stream.

Occupied Rebel Stronghold

Associated Press Foreign Staff

Madrid, Sept. 3 (AP).—Government troops occupied the important rebel stronghold of Huesca, 26 miles northwest of Zaragoza, the war ministry reported today.

The socialist militia marched into the northeastern provincial capital with fixed bayonets during the early morning hours, the official report declared.

An entire company of Fascist troops joined the government forces before occupation, the ministry said. The government also laid claim to victory during a fierce engagement with insurgents in the Extremadura district in western central Spain.

A rebel column advancing on Luarca, small seaport on the northern coast, was reported today.

Richman and Merrill At S. Wales, Out of Gas; New Record Claimed

Richman-Merrill Is 28th Atlantic Flight

New York, Sept. 3 (AP).—Twenty-eight successful non-stop plane flights over the North Atlantic preceded the effort of Harry Richman and Richard Merrill.

In June, 1919, Capt. John Alcock and Lieut. Arthur W. Brown made the first non-stop trip, flying from St. John's Newfoundland, to Clifden, Ireland.

Col. Charles A. Lindbergh made the first non-stop solo flight, winging from New York to Paris on May 21, 1927.

Exactly five years later, Amelia Earhart Putnam flew from Harbor Grace, N. F., to Londonderry, Ireland, the first non-stop solo flight by a woman.

Other successful non-stop air-plane flights included: June 6, 1927—Clarence Chamberlin and Charles Levine, New York to Helita, Germany.

July 1, 1927—Richard Byrd, George Noville, Bert Acosta, Berni Blanchen, New York to Ver-sur-Mer, France.

April 12, 1928—Capt. Herman Koehl, Baron G. Von Heunfeld, M. James Fitzmaurice—Dublin, Ireland, to Greenly, N. F., the first east-west non-stop flight.

Sept. 2, 1930—Capt. Dieudonne Coste and Lieut. Maurice Bellonte, Paris to New York.

June 24, 1931—Wiley Post, Harold Gatty—Harbor Grace to Chester, England.

June 29, 1931—Clyde Pangborn and Hugh Herndon, Jr., New York to Moylegrove, Wales.

July 23, 1933—J. A. Mollison and his wife, Amy Johnson, Pendine, Wales, to Stratford, Conn.

Registrations At The Election Board Double Year 1935

Nearly twice as many voters have registered this year with the Ulster County Election Board under the central registration provision of the election law than last year.

This year during August, the month of central registration, 74 persons appeared in person and registered.

They are people who will be absent from the city on the regular registration days. Last year there were 42 central registrations.

Thus far there have been 137 applications for absentee ballots by voters who will be away from home on election day.

The time for central registration is the month of August and the time for central registration expired Monday.

Application for absentee ballots however may be made by persons who expect to be away from home on election day not only during the central registration period but also on regular registration days.

The person making application for absentee ballot must appear in person, except under certain exceptions granted by the law. In addition to making application for absentee ballots during central registration a person may personally appear before the registration board at their polling place on any of the registration days and make application for an absentee ballot.

These registration days are October 9 and 10 and 16 and 17 and in the county October 10 and 17.

Exceptions to the rule for personal appearance when applying for an absentee ballot are restricted to inmates of soldiers' and sailors' home, a person under treatment in a U. S. Veterans' Bureau Hospital, or a person in federal service, or to a student matriculated, or superintendent of teacher employed in an institution of learning located outside the county where applicant resides. All other persons desiring an absentee ballot must appear in person on one of the regular registration days before the Board of Inspectors of Election of the district wherein the voter resides or before the Central Registration Board when such board is in session during the month of August.

Need New Ships

Washington, Sept. 3 (AP).—Contending that 350 new ships are needed to put the American merchant marine on even terms with foreign vessels, shipping board bureau officials reported today they are laying tentative groundwork for a large construction program. Preparing preliminary data for the new maritime commission, officials said they have found that new merchant ships of all classes are needed.

Reyes-Rich Marriage

New York, Sept. 3 (AP).—Teddy Royce, British orchestra leader, said he and blonde Peggy Rich would be married late today at Harrison, N. Y. The couple had planned to be married yesterday aboard the liner Normandie, but the ship sailed 15 minutes before they reached the pier. Royce said he planned to take his bride back to London and star her in a show there.

Last Day For Taxes

Handsomeness Awards And Silver Loving Cup At Flower and Baby Show

Many Entries Being Received for City's Big Show to be Held in Municipal Auditorium September 15 and 16.

PLANS PROGRESS

Elsie Janis Unable to Attend Festival Due to Preparations for Her Future Activities.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the baby parade that will be held in connection with Kingston's big flower festival on September 15 and 16 in the Municipal Auditorium on Broadway, and Mrs. Fred P. Luther, general chairman in charge of the festival, expects that it will prove one of the largest and finest affairs of its kind ever held in the city.

One of the outstanding awards will be a silver loving cup to be awarded by Mayor C. J. Heiselein in the baby show. Any child should, when grown, be pleased to say that this cup was awarded by the then mayor of Kingston. There will be little babies and big babies, pretty babies and cute babies, in fact all kinds of babies will take part in the big baby parade that will feature the flower show. Handsome awards will be made in the various classes, which are open to all children from three to five and a half years of age. Mrs. Clyde Wood of 117 Downs street is in charge of the entries, and parents desiring to enter their children should get in touch with her at once.

Mrs. Luther said today that she was very sorry to announce that Elsie Janis, world famous actress, who was expected to attend the show, would be unable to be present. Mrs. Luther has received the following letter from Miss Janis: Dear Mrs. Luther: I am terribly sorry that I will not be able to be with you in Kingston, as I had hoped. I am completely swamped in preparations for my future activities, which will include, I hope, a visit to Kingston, but this summer you will have to forgive me, and understand. My regards to Kingston and you. Sincerely, Elsie Janis.

Waiting For Bride

Questioned in regard to whether a wedding would also mark the flower festival, Mrs. Luther said "We are still looking for the right bride. While several have appeared none are just what we want. It should be understood that this is not just a circus stunt, but a wedding to be held under the most refined circumstances and in one of the most beautiful settings that can be arranged."

Mrs. Luther has not given up hopes of having a wedding staged amid the embowered beauties of the flower festival, and is still hoping that some charming young girl will arrange to have her nuptial celebration during the festival in the Auditorium.

Flower Awards

Awards for the flower festival are coming from all over the country. While the list is as yet incomplete, the following are a few which will interest all flower growers:

1.—To the best amateur grower showing the best display of dahlias the Porella Gardens offer a Mrs. W. T. Lord tuber.

2.—For the best three white wonders Charles Penn awards one tuber saian.

3.—For the best basket exhibited of dahlias Walter Ostrander awards one fine tuber.

4.—For the best basket or vase of three reds Charles Penn of Schenectady offers one tuber, Indiana Moon, to amateur grower.

5.—For the best three yellows any variety Walter Ostrander offers one fine tuber.

6.—For the best basket or vase three pinks Charles Penn offers one Jersey Dainty tuber.

7.—For the best basket of six Mrs. F. P. Luther offers one fine tuber.

8.—Best basket or vase any variety of purple Walter Ostrander offers one special tuber dahlia.

9.—For the largest dahlia in show Mrs. F. P. Luther offers one fine tuber.

10.—For the best basket or vase of commercial size dahlias one tuber award from Walter Ostrander.

11.—For the best basket or vase Jane Cowie Mrs. Luther offers one fine tuber.

12.—For the best assortment of old fashioned dahlias Mrs. Luther offers one fine tuber.

Clothing Called Worthless Evidence

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 3 (AP).—The blood-stained clothing returned to the killers of Sam Drukman was almost worthless as evidence in the famous Brooklyn homicide, District Attorney William F. X. Geoghan testified today at his removal hearing.

He was trying to refute the charge that he was negligent and incompetent because he directed the return of the clothing to Meyer and Harry Luckman and Fred J. Hull, all of whom are now serving prison terms.

Governor Lehman and his advisers were busy examining records as the Brooklyn district attorney reiterated the story he has already told the governor in his official answer to extraordinary grand jury charges against him.

"Police Inspector John J. Ryan said I directed the return of the clothing on May 28, 1935," Geoghan said. "I won't say I did not, and if Ryan says I did I will not say he is wrong."

"But we could not have produced testimony with the clothing that the stains on the garment were blood. We did not need to show the clothing at a trial. What we needed was expert evidence that human blood was found on the clothing, and we got that from the New York city toxicologist."

"Much was said in the campaign against me last year about this clothing as if it were of great importance. I deny it was of such importance."

Small Crop Crop.

Chicago, Sept. 3 (AP).—Consensus of five private crop estimates made public on the Chicago board of trade today indicated a 1936 domestic corn crop of 1,416,000,000 bushels, 23,000,000 bushels below the latest government figures and the smallest crop in more than a half century. The indicated production of corn this year compared with a crop of 2,331,000,000 bushels produced in 1925 and 1,474,000,000 produced in the previous year of great drouth 1934.

Find Body of R. G. Smith

New York, Sept. 3 (AP).—The body of Benjamin G. Smith, 52, former controller of E. R. Squibb and Sons, manufacturer of drugs, was found today in a Knickerbocker village apartment shortly after it was wrecked by an explosion of gas. He was identified by his brother, Arthur Smith, of Ridgefield Park, N. J. Police said gas had been flowing from the kitchen range and exploded when the pilot light ignited it. The apartment is occupied by Smith's sister, Mrs. Eleanor Gordon. She was not at home at the time.

Italian Killed.

Rome, Sept. 3 (AP).—The press ministry announced today an Italian worker had been killed in Barcelona and that Italian naval forces in Spanish waters probably would be increased. The worker's name was given as Umberto Fazzalenda, father of seven children. He was killed, a press spokesman said, because of religious images were found in his house.

Treasury Receipts

Washington, Sept. 3 (AP).—The position of the treasury on September 1: Receipts, $10,515,751.25; expenditures, $11,115,235.40; balance, $1,632,035,554.40; customs receipts for the month, $1,045,444.75; receipts for the fiscal year, $44,477,485.25; expenditures, $1,015,242,123.25, including $350,249,245.45 of emergency expenditures; excess of expenditures, $264,469,018.57; gross debt, $22,374,391.25, a decrease of $2,477,349.25 under the previous day; gold assets, $10,717,255,587.25.

Presidential Rivals Confer at Luncheon Behind Closed Doors of Iowa Governor's Office with Representatives From 5 States.

THE PROCEDURE

Roosevelt Might Let Aides Do the Talking; Landon Has Advocated State-Federal Conservation.

By EDWIN STOUT (Associated Press Staff Writer).

Des Moines, Iowa, Sept. 4 (AP).—Thousands of Iowans crowded today to seek a glimpse of President Roosevelt and Gov. Alfred M. Landon at a history-making meeting of the rival presidential candidates.

As the Democratic and Republican nominees sped to the city for the President's drouth conference with officials of seven midwestern states, national guardsmen, highway policemen and police trooped out to handle the throngs.

Gov. Clyde Herring of Iowa, host to the conference, arranged for Mr. Roosevelt and Gov. Landon to meet for the first time since they became their party's 1936 standard bearers, at a luncheon behind closed doors of his offices in the state capitol building.

The President's subsequent discussions with the governors, senators and other representatives of five of the states were also scheduled in the same sanctuary.

The unique meeting of the chief executive and the governor of Kansas was fraught with dramatic possibilities. But their audience was limited.

Herring said that when Mr. Roosevelt entered the statehouse—after a circuitous drive through flag decked streets from his train—he would be seen only by approximately 50 luncheon guests, the conferees and "possibly a few photographers" until he leaves late in the afternoon for his train and a dinner there with the governors.

Workmen hung a huge canvas curtain to screen the movement of President Roosevelt and other guests in the statehouse from the several hundred newspapermen to whom official passes have been issued. Only guests, conferees, and newsmen were admitted to the statehouse.

Outside the building, patrolmen were stationed to confine the curious to the sweeping lawns and drives on Capitol Hill.

The President, governors and senators attending the meeting were to follow the same route through Des Moines streets in their drive to the statehouse, but, Herring said, it "will not be a procession."

Mr. Roosevelt, Herring said, might "remain in the background" during the discussions. He added:

"I understand Mr. Roosevelt's aides will do most of the talking while the President himself sits back and absorbs the situation as it develops."

Roosevelt aides said on route that the President may confer separately with each state delegation but Herring said he had been asked to provide "at the conference," and that he understood it would be a single meeting and not a series.

At the state house, Herring said, Mr. Roosevelt would take up the problems of five states—Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Kansas. The Iowa governor said the President would meet with Wisconsin and Minnesota representatives at his train following a dinner on the drier with the participating governors.

The President, reaching the climatic point of his 3,000 mile tour of the arid areas at Des Moines, may receive a sheet of drouth relief plans prepared by Governor Landon.

The Republican presidential nominee some months ago advocated a state-federal water conservation program.

Landon's Advisers

Landon was accompanied to the conference by four advisers—L. E. Call, W. E. Grimes, and Harry V. Lister of Kansas State College and George Knapp, water resources engineer of the Kansas State Board of Agriculture. Two other Kansans—Senator Arthur Capper, Republican, and Senator George McGill, Democrat, may be heard.

Rexford G. Tuckwell, rural resettlement head; Harry L. Hopkins, WPA administrator; and Henry A. Wallace, secretary of agriculture, were the President's advisers.

Herring said the President's advisers would "ask the representatives of each state just what their needs are and how the program is working."

Announcement of any possible "actions from the meeting," he said, would probably not be forthcoming until the President returned to Washington, where he is scheduled to give a nationwide radio report on the situation at 8:45 p. m. (EST) Sunday night.

The Associated Press Patrols The World for Kingston Freeman

The great news-gathering organization of The Associated Press patrols the whole world day after day just as it does New York state to bring to this newspaper, the 79 other member papers in this state and nearly 1,300 others elsewhere swift, accurate accounts of the news of the day.

In this state, a large staff of full-time news, photo and technical experts at general headquarters in New York city and five other bureaus are on the job day and night expediting the news to the fourscore member papers as fast as modern communication will carry the words.

Further coverage is assured by hundreds of part-time correspondents who blanket the state, speeding dispatches to the nearest bureau where they are checked and put on the wires.

This Paper Contributes News

Because of the cooperative nature of The Associated Press, this newspaper, too, has a hand in the coverage. This paper—and every other member paper—gives its own local news in exchange for that of the others. In fact, it is this system of co-operation carried out on a national scale by the members which makes possible The Associated Press.

The role of the AP, with its 7,500 full and part-time correspondents in the United States and Canada, and hundreds of others in 252 principal foreign cities, is that of a great clearing house for news. The association uses 280,000 miles of leased wire on this continent, and thousands of miles more of wireless and cable in linking the member newspapers and bringing the news.

Special Service in Washington

In Washington, D. C., this state's news interests are looked after by a big regional staff maintained solely to report news of special interest to this and other specific sections of the country. New York's congressional delegation is contacted daily and thorough reporting is given all events affecting this state.

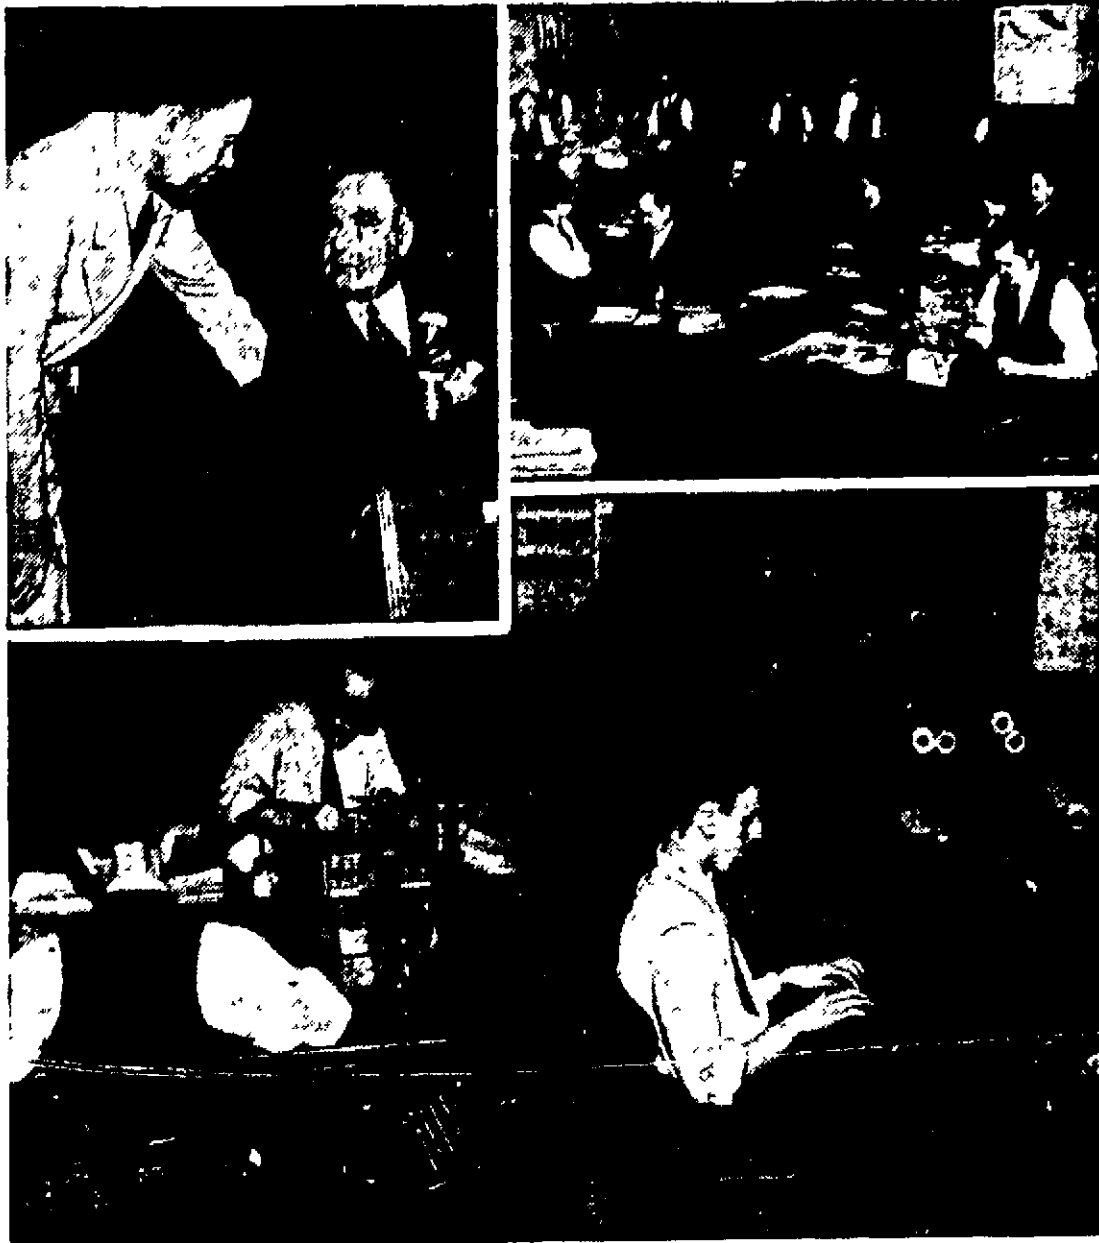

Two of the five bureaus outside of New York city are located in Albany—one in The Knickerbocker Press building, the other in the state capitol. The other three are in Syracuse, Rochester and Buffalo.

The New York city office, occupying two floors at 393 Madison avenue, is the nerve center of the world-wide organization and supervises news, feature and picture activities around the globe. In addition, New York city shares with Albany as a focal point in the state. These bureaus are humming centers of activity, staffed around the clock. In and out of them flow thousands of words daily.

Dispatches from all over the state pour into them by telephone, telegraph and automatic electric sending typewriters to be relayed to the member papers. Part of the staff devotes itself to this relay. Other staff men write feature stories with particular appeal to New York state residents.

News stories from other states and countries come to member papers over the wires from New York city. Over this same channel, the Empire state feeds its own important news to the world.

Objective Legislative Reporting
In the capitol bureau at Albany,

The day's news in the making! Part of The Associated Press staffs are shown at work in Albany (bottom), state headquarters, and New York City (top), general headquarters, writing, editing and dispatching the news to this newspaper and 79 other member papers in this state. Left top, Preston Grover, one of the Washington columnists of the A.P., gets Governor Lehman's ear for questioning.

trained staff men watch the activities of the legislature when it is in session and report the facts as they see and hear them—objectively, fairly. A special wire carries this news to the downtown Albany bureau, where it is put on the state wires.

Buffalo, Syracuse and Rochester is each responsible for the territory in which it is located. Hundreds of miles of busy wires interlace this state to bring news to member papers. All but eight papers are linked to the vast AP network by direct wire. Automatic electric typewriters in their offices click off the news at 60 words a minute. The remaining eight receive a condensed news report by telephone and telegraph from Albany and Buffalo.

A large photographic staff enables member papers to tell the news with pictures as well as words. Pictures are received and dispatched by Wirephoto, an Associated Press system of transmitting pictures by wire, at New York, Syracuse and Buffalo. They are also disseminated by air, train, bus, and by speedy mat services.

Alert for Emergencies

An editor's eyes are on the New York state news wires every hour of the day and night.

At the first sign of an emergency the chief of bureau and state news editor are notified. If a big story is breaking, maps and timetables are scanned, emergency arrangements are made to get the news, wherever it may be, and if necessary, staff men are sent by air or land to the scene.

Such an emergency was the disappearance one night late in December, 1934, of an airliner between Syracuse and Albany. Many hours later it sent out feeble radio signals after an emergency landing on a mountain top. The plane was a wreck, snow was falling and temperatures were far below zero.

Many more hours passed before the two pilots and two passengers were located from the air and rescued by guides and state police on snowshoes.

Associated Press men were at various points near the scene, at the radio station in Albany airport where the search was directed, and in the Albany bureau writing the story for the wires. The AP men worked side by side with reporters from member newspapers, and through an emergency arrangement made in advance it was one of these reporters who actually flashed the first story of the rescue to Albany, giving The Associated Press a beat over all other news-gathering organizations.

Speed and Integrity Stressed

Another major story was the kidnapping in Albany of Lt. John J. O'Connell, nephew of the O'Connell brothers, Albany's democratic leaders. One of the largest ransoms ever demanded—$40,000—was paid for his safe return.

Always the state news service is ready for other emergencies like these and so well organized is the whole complex Associated Press system that this newspaper is only minutes away from the most distant foreign city. And so stringently does the AP guard against bias and prejudice that its name has become synonymous with integrity and reliability in the news.

Players' Guild Will Meet September 10

The Kingston Players Guild will hold its first meeting of the season on Thursday evening, September 10, at the Municipal Auditorium at 7:30.

This initial get-together was originally scheduled for tonight, but due to the inability to obtain the use of the Auditorium, it was postponed until next Thursday.

Last year the Players Guild produced four successful plays, and tentative plans for this season call for six of the highest type of productions possible by the local group.

The plays at the summer theatres this year have been quite well attended and it is felt have succeeded to some degree in initiating the theatre public into the idea of seeing actual plays, so that the Guild's arrangement to present two additional productions should occupy the space left vacant by the closing of these summer playhouses.

Anyone interested in the presentation of plays and dramatics will be cordially welcomed at the Thursday meeting which will number among those present many of the favorites of former years of Kingston High School productions.

First Iron Works

The first iron works were erected at Falling Creek, Va., near Richmond, in 1619, by the Virginia Co., but Indian troubles and the revocation of the charter of the company in 1624, caused the foundry to close. The first successful iron works were located on the Saugus river, near Lynn, Mass. There works were built in 1643 by John Winthrop, Jr., and ten other Englishmen, forming the "Company of Undertakers for the Iron Works."

Held on Charge 2nd Degree Forgery

Loughran S. Smith of 28 Tompkins street, Poughkeepsie, was arrested in that city Wednesday evening by Sergeant Cunningham and Trooper Keefe on a charge of forgery in the second degree. He was arraigned before Justice Wallace Shults of Woodstock who held him for appearance before the grand jury.

Smith is charged with having forged the name of L. J. Smith to three checks, all drawn on the Central Branch of the Kingston Trust Co. Monroe Longendyke, proprietor of the Brass Rail at Woodstock, who cashed one of the checks, made the complaint.

Smith is well known in Kingston, where he was formerly employed.

SWEDEN'S FARMERS

By ELMER W. PETERSON

Stockholm (A)—Now and then a Swedish worker moves into a new little cottage, with a small cowshed and a piece of land—without paying down a penny for the privilege.

That sounds like a form of Utopia. It is, in reality, a part of the "workers' small holdings" movement, one of the most successful social experiments in Sweden.

Today there are about 3,000 of these small holdings, with funds available for a further 2,500 for forest workers and others.

The plan is intended partly to relieve unemployment. It also is a feature toward relief of the farm tenancy problem, with the stated object of "satisfying the social demand that the population of the country districts should be the owners of the land they till."

Loans Is Provided

Those added by the movement have been forest workers and lumbermen, subject to seasonal unemployment, along with agricultural laborers, fishermen and quarrymen.

The loans which make possible these small holdings are divided into two parts, one to be paid by installment, the other permanent. The permanent loan equals the purchase price of the ground plus a possible contribution towards its cultivation. It has a maximum of 2,000 kronor (about $500).

The installment-payment loan comes payment-free for five years. The recipient then pays off, interest-free, one-thirtieth of the loan annually for a period of 20 years. This means a payment of from $20 to $50 yearly, or about the amount paid for rental of a farm of that size.

Qualifications Set High

For these loans the Swedish government since 1923 has voted a total of 25 million kronor (about $6,250,000) and an additional 12 million kronor has been requested this year.

Personal qualifications for obtaining one of these workers' small holdings are set high. Local authorities cooperate in selection of land and in the building required.

The movement is particularly strong in northern Sweden where seasonal unemployment is a problem. From the point of view of the government, it now constitutes an important safeguard against depression and unemployment as well. (Last in the series.)

Recent Rains Were Benefit to Crops

The recent rains, according to Albert Kurdt, manager of the Ulster County Farm Bureau, have been of great benefit to crops and particularly late crops which were still in the growing stage after the drought was broken. Of particular benefit to late corn, the rains have nourished this important crop through the county and prospects of a good late corn crop are bright. Early corn, which was in the hardening stage before the late August rains came will not benefit.

Very important also to Ulster county fruit growers are the late summer rains. This increased moisture has had a very beneficial effect on the sizing of apples and other late fruit crops. The apple crop in Ulster county is good this fall and the recent rains have contributed to the quality and size of the apples. Generally the apple crop through the county is considered below normal, in fact the crop is placed at about 60 per cent.

Pastures have also benefited by the recent rains and many pastures which were practically out of use due to the summer drought are reported greening up by Mr. Kurdt and will provide good late pasture. The rainfall has been of sufficient amount to replenish streams and springs and the water situation in the county is generally much better.

AGRICULTURE

Cornell's ninth annual egg grading and marketing school is scheduled for September 15 to 18 this year.

The New York potato crop is estimated at 25 million bushels, which is 11 per cent less than last year and 22 per cent less than the average.

Because of cool weather and the usual normal rainfall, the early part of September is generally accepted as the best time to sow grass seed for lawns in New York state.

Bruising is the most important single defect found in potatoes on the market; the way to make the potato crop more marketable is to avoid injury at all stages of digging and handling.

Recent tests on the Cornell experimental farm indicate that laying hens or pullets will not eat as much mash as usual on extremely cold days. To overcome this, warm wet mashes, condensed buttermilk, or liquid skim milk are suggested on cold days.

The human element is responsible for the great majority of accidents. We must make it impossible for the twenty-mile-an-hour driver to operate his car at eighty on a thirty-mile-an-hour highway.

The queerest thing about Russia is the way criminals brag in court about their crimes. A few American criminal lawyers over there would soon stop that.

Mrs. Roosevelt Not Angry at Shouter

Ridgefield, Conn., Sept. 3 (AP)—Francis J. Bassett, Democratic town chairman, who recently shouted to Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt to "get off the road" when her car blocked his, showed friends today a letter from the President's wife in which she told of feeling "very humbled" because of her action.

Bassett, a high school economics teacher, said it was a reply to a letter of apology he had written after the incident.

The letter, signed "Eleanor Roosevelt," read:

"I did not know you had been rude. Perhaps being a little deaf is a good thing."

"I was simply conscious that you had to swerve far out to pass me and felt very humble."

Bassett said a car which he later learned was Mrs. Roosevelt's blocked his path on a road here recently. He shouted as he passed, and then stopped his car and returned on foot to give the driver a lecture.

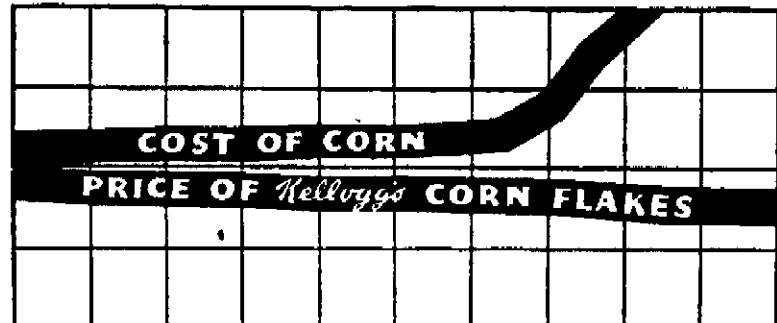

When he recognized the President's wife, he stammered an apology and hastily returned to his car.

"That's all right young man," he quoted Mrs. Roosevelt as saying as he backed away.

Calcium is an element which is absolutely necessary to health and the daily upkeep of the body. Milk contains calcium in far greater proportion than any other food and it is easy to see how costly the results will be when such an important food is neglected.

Corn prices hit 10-year peak. Kellogg's Corn Flakes prices lowest in history.

• THE KELLOGG COMPANY is one of the world's largest users of white corn.

Our policy is to keep our prices down as long as stocks on hand permit.

Despite the spectacular rise in corn—you can still buy Kellogg's Corn Flakes today at the lowest price in its history.

You can take advantage of these great values while they last. Grocers are co-operating gladly in trying to hold your food prices down as long as they can.

OFFICE CAT

A horse is of vastly more use to a man than a dog. Yet the dog gets the better treatment.

Native—George Washington threw a dollar across the Rappahannock river while standing right on this spot.

Tourist—I can easily believe that. They showed me where he pitched his camp across the Delaware river when the British were after him and it was a lot wider than this.

A lot of people who spout so profusely about capital and labor never had any capital and never did any labor when they could get out of it.

Friend—Who established the law of diminishing returns?
Man—My laundryman.

Mishap
From the Newton, Kansas, Tribune comes the following account of a minor mishap:

Mrs. Janice Floridian suffered a painful injury Saturday when she tripped over a rug while moving the furniture in the parlor and fell, fracturing her knee-cap and demolishing her what-not.

Visitor (as Junior picked up his scattered toys)—That's a good little boy. I suppose your mother has promised you something if you clean up the room.

Junior (correcting her)—If I don't.

Simplicity

I tried so hard to win his love with artifice, fine.

My hair was curled; my lips rouged.

I thought I looked divine.

I even sprayed some rare perfume on my new frock so gay;

But he displayed no interest, and quickly went away.

One morn, at dawn, he passed my home and saw me picking flowers.

No powder, rouge, and bright lipstick were worn in early hours.

"Oh, you're lovely, dear," he said.

"You're sweet as you can be—

An angel in a gingham gown!" And fell in love with me.

—LYLA MYERS.

Man (at lunch with friend)—

How's your new stenographer?

Friend—Phew! I don't think she's ever went to school. Why, just yesterday she addressed an envelope to Washington, D. C., instead of D. C.

Man—Hang on to her. That girl isn't so dumb after all.

The mistresses that are hardest to bear are those that never come.

Little Doris, radiant over a recent addition to the family, rushed out to tell the news to a passing neighbor.

Little Doris—You don't know what we're got upstairs!

Neighbor—What is it?

Little Doris—It's a new baby brother!

Neighbor—You don't say so. Is he going to stay?

Little Doris (thoughtfully)—I think so. He's got his things off.

We have a citizen who just can't neglect other people's business long enough to have a vacation.

Mrs. Perkins—You know, my son has just joined the navy.

Mrs. Perkins—Ah, then I'm sure he has met my son. He's in the navy too.

Officer—Where have you been?

Crook—Oh, just in the crowd for a little change.

Correct this sentence: "He can lick any man of his weight," said the friend, "but he never starts a quarrel."

Teacher—Who discovered America?

Student—Ohio.

Teacher—No, sonny, Columbus.

Student—Aw, that was just his first name.

We underrate the value and importance of personal contact. Those who have it pretty well mastered have many a battle won before the first blow is struck.

Kate—Has Marian really got a falsetto voice?

Jake—I don't know, but her teeth are.

Home Institute BE A GOOD DANCER

The best dancers on the floor! That's Jack and Elaine! See how they swing through that fox-trot! Hands at correct shoulder height, Jack's right hand below Elaine's left shoulderblade. Each looks over the other's right shoulder. Confidently Jack leads through clever combinations of steps. He isn't afraid of treading on Elaine's toes, as he used to be. She is easy to lead for she lets her partner step first.

Notice how some of those other girls on the floor sag on their partner's arm. How they hippity-hop with too much knee-bend. Instead of gliding smoothly. Or dance stiff-kneed in a misguided effort to achieve a flowing, graceful motion. Or let hands drop. Or tilt the head back and stare straight at their partner in that beak-to-beak, bantam-rooster effect.

They should take a tip from Jack and Elaine who learned to dance at home. The phonograph worked hard while they stepped off the tango, the fox-trot, the waltz, the rumba. They learned all the basic steps. How to walk backward gracefully, not like a polar bear on ice. They worked with diagrams, that's why it was so easy.

You'll find our 40-page booklet, SOCIAL DANCING SELF-TAUGHT, as helpful as a dancing teacher. With those diagrams you can't go wrong. Nothing to puzzle out. Just step right through the latest dances!

Send 15c for our booklet, SOCIAL DANCING SELF-TAUGHT, to Kingston Daily Freeman Home Institute, 109 West 19th Street, New York, N. Y. Write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, and the NAME of booklet.

Today

Broadway. "Grand Jury". The corruptness of American courts wherein the criminal is released for his crime because of political backing is the reason for the picture at the Broadway, the story of an average citizen who sees a criminal liberated by a negligent jury and who goes out and gathers enough evidence to insure the man's certain conviction. In other words, the moral theme song of the play stresses the necessity of the average man and woman in America taking an interest in strict law enforcement before corruptness and gangland can be wiped out in the United States. Fred Stone, Louise Latimer, Owen Davis, Jr., Moroni Olsen, Frank M. Thomas and Russell Hicks are featured. An RKO Radio picture directed by Albert S. Rogell.

Kingston. "We Went to College" and "Crash Donovan". When the old grade come winging back to college for the homecoming festivities and the big football game something always happens and the first feature at the Kingston describes in glowing detail these activities. The play is filled with laughs and gags of every description and a fine cast includes Charles Butterworth, Hugo Herbert, Una Merkel, Walter Abel and Edith Atwater. "Crash Donovan" is the stirring saga of the motorcycle cop and his bouts with danger and death. The show stars Jack Holt as a reckless cop of the road who loves and fights with equal zest and enjoyment.

Orpheum. "Desire". A young American on vacation in Europe gets tangled up with the continent's most beautiful jewel thief in the attraction at the Orpheum. The show is filled with excitement, romance and comedy and co-stars Gary Cooper and Marlene Dietrich in their first co-operative effort since "Morocco". John Halliday is also in the cast.

Tomorrow

Broadway. Same.

Kingston. "China Clipper". The

ploneers of the air lanes, those men behind the scenes who invent and work and plan the ever growing advance of winged transportation are seen vigorously at work in the aviation saga at the Kingston, a play that starts as Lindbergh returns from his triumphant Paris flight and tells of one Dave Logan who has dreams of establishing a trans-Pacific air service even at that early date. The hardships, the failures and the final success of his dream is exciting motion picture stuff and its termination is reached as the China Clipper heads from California to China in bad weather and makes its goal. Pat O'Brien, Beverly Roberts, Ross Alexander, Marie Wilson, Humphrey Bogart, Henry B. Walthall, Addison Richards and Ruth Robinson are featured. A First National production directed by Raymond Enright.

Orpheum. "Poor Little Rich Girl" and "The Thoroughbred". Little Shirley Temple, who is scaring her company as she grows like a weed out of the little girl class, has her finest supporting cast in the film at the Orpheum. The tale of a rich little girl who breaks away from the bonds of her luxury for a time and has a grand experience out on her own. The show is luteful, zeetful and well done. Michael Whelan, Alice Faye and Jack Haley are featured. "The Thoroughbred" is the other full length feature with Toby Wing.

Two Pieces Required for This Easy Quilt

Wonder of the World

PATTERN 5621

Rightly named "Wonder of the World"—this gay quilt is in keeping with its title—it's made of but two pattern pieces and two contrasting fabrics! Lovely indeed—is this unusual pattern when completed; it looks so intricate but is so easy. A charming modern "heirloom," you'll be surprised how quickly the blocks pile up. In pattern 5621 you will find the Block Chart, an illustration for cutting, sewing and finishing, together with yardage chart, diagram of quilt to help arrange the blocks for single and double bed size and a diagram of block which serves as a guide for placing the patches and suggests contrasting materials.

To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to the Kingston Daily Freeman, Household Arts Dept., 259 W. 14th street, New York N. Y. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS and PATTERN NUMBER.

Baked Halibut, Rector Style
1 pound halibut
1 cup water
1 tablespoon salt
1 teaspoon paprika
1 tablespoon lemon juice

Wipe off steak with damp cloth. Sprinkle with flour, salt and paprika. Rub with fat and place in shallow, greased baking pan. Bake 20 minutes in moderate oven. Add one-third inch of water and lid. Bake 40 minutes. Spread with rest of ingredients, heat 2 minutes and serve.

Baked Stuffed Potatoes
4 baked potatoes
1 tablespoon salt
1 tablespoon paprika

Make cuts in tops of potatoes. Remove and mash pulp, add cream and salt. Beat until fluffy. Roughly redill potato cases. Bake 15 minutes in moderate oven, sprinkle with paprika and serve.

Peach Tapioca
(Apples Can Be Used)
1 cup water
1 cup sugar
1/4 cup tapioca
1/4 teaspoon salt
3 cups crushed apples
1/2 cup lemon juice
1/2 cup water, sugar, tapioca and salt.

Cook 25 minutes in double boiler, stirring frequently. Add rest of ingredients and cook 10 minutes. Cool and chill. Berries or other fruits can be substituted for peaches.

Pickled beets added to lemon gelatin make a good salad when topped with mayonnaise or salad dressing. Chopped celery or cabbage can also be added.

GLENFORD

Glenford, Sept. 3—Mr. and Mrs. Kane have returned to their home in New York city after having spent the past few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. D. Bischoff.

Moran School's Fall Opening

Students are now registering for the fall term of the Moran School of Business, Burgevin building, corner Fair and Main streets. Tuesday, September 3, will be the principal beginning date for both day and evening sessions.

For the last 22 years the Moran School has been hastening the success of hundreds of young men and women by training them for efficient service in business. Each year young people go out from this institution to worthwhile positions.

The Moran School recently added to the equipment of its secretarial department a new Model 12 Dictaphone unit of modern streamline design. Equipped with "Nuphonic Reproduction," this unit embodies all the latest principles of acoustics, resulting in a high degree of clarity, volume and pleasantness of tone.

To insure a thorough mastery of dictaphone operation, the Moran

School has added also a new dictaphone secretarial course, recently perfected and placed on the market by the Dictaphone Company. This course includes 24 electrically-recorded permanent practice records, comprising letters, general business documents, digests of secretarial requirements and information on various elements of office procedure.

The school office is open daily for registration. Evening appointments may be made by telephone. The Moran School's call is Kingston 178.

OF COURSE WE'LL Try Spry—THAT AMAZING NEW ALL-VEGETABLE SHORTENING

IT'S SO PURE—SO WHITE AND CREAMY

IT STAYS SO FRESH AND SWEET

Who else wants to accept our invitation to Try Spry?

Join your friends and neighbors. They've tried Spry and they're tickled to pieces that they did! For they've discovered that Spry is a better shortening—ALL-vegetable, purer, whiter, smoother.

Spry doesn't have to be kept in the refrigerator. It stays fresh right on the pantry shelf and is ready for quick, easy creaming instantly. Fries without smoke or odor and you can use it over and over.

Use Spry in any recipe—taste the difference! Cakes are lighter, more delicate. Pastry flakier. Fried foods are so crisp and tender they're doubly delicious and as easy to digest as if baked or boiled! Tested and approved by Good Housekeeping Bureau. Try Spry today. Read our amazing offer.

DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK!

Buy a can of Spry from your grocer. Give Spry every test in pies, cakes, biscuits, fried foods. If you don't find Spry the best shortening you ever used, write to Lever Brothers Company, Cambridge, Mass., stating briefly your reasons for not preferring Spry. Send your name and address and the strip of tin that the key takes off when you open the can. You will promptly receive back twice what you paid for Spry. This offer is limited to one can to a family.

Try Spry Now—offer expires Sept. 17

"CRICKEY... IT'S MRS. WILSON AN' SHE'S MAD!..."

Don't you ever send a woman like her anything but real mayonnaise!

I KNOW lots of women like Mrs. Wilson! They're mighty particular. An' they know that nothing else gives them the same fun, rich goodness and true-campin' flavor that you get from Hellmann's Real Mayonnaise.

You see, Hellmann's is made different! It's all mayonnaise. Jus' fine salad oil, freshly-broken eggs, a specially selected vinegar, and imported spices. An' it's double-whipped for that wonderful creamy smoothness and texture!

An' old grocer like me knows! You're goin' to like your salads a heap better if you use Hellmann's. Why not stop an' git a jar today?

HELLMANN'S REAL MAYONNAISE

Negotiations Fall

New York, Sept. 3 (AP)—Negotiations to avert a truckers strike which would threaten movement of the city's food supplies, stalled today. But leaders of both sides remained hopeful of an agreement. "We are confident there is no doubt about that," said Arthur G. McKenna, managing director of the Merchant

Truckmen's Bureau. "A fiber of us is standing on a high horse, but we just can't agree on details."

German technicians claim that they have developed a carbon black comparable with the American product. The German product, which is based upon naphthalene, is now in commercial production.

Playground Show At Auditorium on Broadway Tonight

The Municipal Auditorium was a busy place this morning with the youngsters from the various playgrounds in the city busy getting their exhibits ready for the big show which opened this afternoon, and will repeat its performance this evening between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock. Admission is free and the general public is invited.

The exhibition is being held to afford the people of the city an opportunity to see at first hand the work that has been accomplished by the children at the various playgrounds. There is also an entertainment program given from the big stage in the Auditorium, and the talent presented is from the various playgrounds. The acts consist of dancing, singing, music and acrobatic feats. This evening there will be a continuous performance from the stage.

Each playground has been assigned a certain amount of floor space to be used for its exhibit. Two of the interesting exhibits are Cornell and Forsyth Parks. The boys have made small-sized replicas of both parks. In Forsyth Park, which occupies a space about 12 feet square is laid out in miniature the entire park with the various buildings and the ball diamond. Even the wooded section is portrayed with green trees planted and rocks piled up. The Cornell Park exhibit also represented the playground section of that park with the various swings and merry-go-rounds, all the work of the boys who built them.

Equally interesting are the exhibits of Loughran Park, Barmann Park, Hasbrouck Park and Block Park. Various ship models, bird houses and other works of art are on display.

All of the articles displayed including all sorts of woodcraft are the handiwork of the children of the various parks, and give a vivid idea of the worthwhile training the children have received during the summer play months at the parks.

It is expected that the exhibit will be largely attended this evening.

California to Rosendale in a Day

Mrs. Charles Hunt arrived in Rosendale about 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, to visit her father, George Geisler, and her sisters. Her trip east reminds one once again of the sharp contrast between the facilities of present day travel and those of days not so long gone by. Mrs. Hunt left California at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning the plane on which she made the journey landed at Newark airport. She spent some time shopping and then came on to Rosendale by automobile.

Charles Hunt is connected with the motion picture industry and will be remembered as connected with the party that took some pictures in Rosendale and vicinity a dozen or more years ago. This is Mrs. Hunt's first visit to her old home in seven years.

Six Bodies Found In Wrecked Plane

Seward, Alaska, Sept. 3 (AP)—Discovery of the bodies of six persons in Pilot Steve Mills' wrecked plane on the Kenai Peninsula was reported here today by airplane Pilot Al Hornung. He took off at once with four men, saying he would return later to get additional help in carrying the bodies out of the wilderness.

Mills and five passengers, including two women, apparently crashed Sunday while on a fishing expedition to the Russian River, an hour's flight from Anchorage, but ruggedness of the terrain delayed confirmation of the tragedy.

The victims, all of Anchorage, were: Mills, Mr. and Mrs. George Markle, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence David and Augustus Telk. News of the crash was withheld from the Markles' daughter, 10, who lay in a Portland, Ore., hospital, suffering from a leg infection.

The crash occurred near Skilak Lake on the Kenai Peninsula, about 60 miles from Anchorage.

FARLEY TO MEET UPSTATE LEADERS ON SATURDAY

Postmaster General James A. Farley, acting in his capacity as Democratic state chairman, has called a conference of the Democratic chairmen of 11 upstate counties, to be held in New York city on Saturday. This will be the first of a series of such conferences to map plans for a campaign to hold New York state for Roosevelt and Lehman.

Among county leaders invited to attend this first conference are Judge Bernard A. Culliton of Kingston, Ulster county chairman, James M. Kelly, Sullivan; Howard Wilbur, Greene; Jacob L. Hicks, Orange; Milo R. Kniffen, Schoharie; Arthur E. Connor, Delaware; Raymond M. Fisher, Rockland; Fred Holapple, Columbia; Alpha B. Whitten, Putnam; William Cronin, Westchester; Charles H. Sullivan, Suffolk.

Other upstate leaders are to confer with Mr. Farley after Labor Day and a conference with New York city leaders is slated for late this week or immediately after Labor Day.

FOURTH WARD CLAMBAKE TO BE HELD SEPTEMBER 12

The clam bake by the Fourth Ward Republican Club and Auxiliary for the members of the organization will be held at the "Spring Quarry," Sunday, September 12. The committee: Mrs. M. Van Kenon, Mrs. P. Heer, Mrs. H. Otto, Charles Heer, and Tony Smith. Tickets will be procured from the committee. They will not be available on the day.

RUSSIANS TO RAZE CONVENT BUILT IN 1654

Moscow's Stranov convent (indicated by arrow), built by Czar Alexei in 1654 and restored by Catherine II in 1779, is being razed to enlarge Pushkin Square and to improve traffic. Tenants occupying the former nuns' chambers will be paid 2,500 rubles for moving. (Associated Press Photo)

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

New York, Sept. 3 (AP).—Profit taking shook down a number of Stock Market leaders today but many issues were resistant and assorted specialties pushed higher.

Trading was extremely quiet in the realizing periods. Steels, Motors and Rails were backward following a fairly firm start.

Business and industrial progress was still a sustaining influence, and selling was not urgent in most cases. Gainers up to a point or so near the final hour included Crown Cork, American Locomotive, Baldwin Locomotive, Procter & Gamble, Briggs Mfg. Co., Coca Cola, Du Pont, Southern Pacific, Montgomery Ward and Consolidated Edison.

The late tone was irregular. Transfers approximated 1,200,000 shares.

About unchanged to a trifle heavy were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Chrysler, Sears Roebuck, Douglas Aircraft, National Distillers, Western Union, American Telephone, Anaconda, Kennecott, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Santa Fe, N. Y. Central, Delaware & Hudson, Northern Pacific, Baltimore & Ohio, Loew's, Holly Sugar and Electric Auto-Lite.

"Buddies" Keep Vigil

Newark, N. J., Sept. 3 (AP).—Seated about two operators in the radio room of the Eastern Airlines at Newark airport, a half-dozen of Dick Merrill's "buddies" kept vigil through the night as the "Lady Peace" soared toward the coast of Ireland. As C. N. Scully, field manager for the airline, expressed it: "We felt responsible because we installed the radio and put the plane through its spots. Naturally we would follow on through."

intend to go to London this evening.

When reporters reached him at Llanwelydd, four miles from the field, his first cry was: "I want some gas to get our bus off again; we want to keep our date with the lady at Croydon."

He went on:

Both Absolutely Okay

"We are both absolutely Okay. The machine is in marvelous shape; nothing is wrong with her. We made a perfect landing, but you see, we got lost; yes, we got lost."

"Our radio went on the bum. We hit a couple of storms and in one of them the lightning put the radio out. That was early this morning so we were without radio all these hours."

"We couldn't see Ireland and that threw us off so we started circling about to find out where we were."

"We circles about an hour and a half and that used up the gas. The ceiling was low and all the places around her where we could have made a landing were full of cattle—you know, cows and sheep."

"In the end we picked a field where there were only three cows."

"Those cows were certainly lady-like and good manners, for they trotted off nicely as we came down and nobody minded."

Asked about Merrill, who had stayed by the plane, Richman said:

"Oh, he's fine. He's lying in the grass looking at the cows."

Safe Forced Landing.

Croydon, Airdrome, England, Sept. 3 (AP).—The Croydon communication office announced officially today the American fliers Merrill and Richman had made a safe forced landing at Llanwelydd, Carmarthenshire, South Wales.

The communications office stated Merrill had telephoned Croydon, reporting the transatlantic plane "Lady Peace" had landed in a field, that the fliers were unhurt, and that the machine was undamaged.

The aviators, who had topped the exploits of a long list of oceanic speed fliers in their flight from New York to the Irish coast, came down approximately 175 miles from their Croydon goal.

Their estimated elapsed time from Floyd Bennett field, Brooklyn, to Dingle Bay, Ireland, had been computed at 15 hours and 40 minutes, by far the speediest crossing.

They were reported sighted off South Wales at 2:20 p. m. (8:20 a. m., eastern standard time), but it was more than two hours before the news of their forced landing was received.

From New York to the place where they landed the distance is roughly 3,000 miles, by the great circle route which they followed on the eastward leg of their projected round trip flight between New York and London.

Merrill and Richman were forced to land because of fuel shortage, the airport officials announced, and may proceed to Croydon if additional gasoline can be made available quickly.

Hard rains on the eastern end of their journey, it was assumed, caused a heavier fuel drain than had been expected.

The time of their landing was not given, but it was believed to have been about 4:15 p. m. (10:15 a. m., Eastern Standard Time).

This would make their elapsed time from Brooklyn to the point of landing 18 hours and 38 minutes, for an average speed of between 185 and 190 miles an hour.

One of the best previous average speeds for an eastward transatlantic trip was about 170 miles an hour, made by Mattern and Griffin in 1932 on their 3,000-mile hop from Harbor Grace to Berlin, in an elapsed time of 18 hours and 49 minutes.

Richman, New York night club singer and actor, and Merrill, veteran aviator, lifted their powerful low-wing monoplane off the Brooklyn Airport at 3:37 p. m. Eastern Standard Time yesterday.

Flying at times at an altitude of 10,000 feet, they maintained space-modic two-way radio communication with United States stations for the greater part of their speedy journey.

Fought Hazardous Weather

By CHARLES E. HARNER

(Copyright, 1936, By Associated Press)

New York, Sept. 3 (AP).—Dick Merrill and Harry Richmond, flying non-stop to London on the first leg of a projected round-trip speed test, fought hazardous weather today as they raced over Ireland.

Low-lying clouds, storms, heavy rain and fog threatened to retard their speed after they had averaged 195 miles an hour during the first stages of their transatlantic flight from Floyd Bennett field at Brooklyn.

Messages from England indicated rough weather over the Irish Sea.

The Press Association (British) reported from London that a wireless message picked up at Croydon Airport said the fliers were winning over Ireland at 7:17 a. m. eastern standard time.

Attaches at Croydon airport estimated they would land their craft, "Lady Peace," at 9 a. m. EST.

The fliers had reported to Eastern Airlines at Jacksonville and New Orleans at 4:30 a. m. that they were heading Ireland and had been flying "blind" because of fog and rain.

Merrill, veteran aviator and transport pilot, was at the controls as the "Lady Peace" ship, equipped with a 1,000-horsepower (Wright-Cyclone) engine, roared away from Floyd Bennett field at 3:37 p. m. yesterday.

Radio Timekeeping Record

Eastern Airlines officials said they believed a second radio telephone line from the airplane had been set at 5:24 a. m. when the Jacksonville office of the airline conferred with Richmond, 3,032 miles away.

The conversation came through perfectly. Richman said the fliers were at 10,000 feet and 150 miles off the coast of Ireland. He added they had just jumped on ice and sandwiches.

Merrill warmed up the motor carefully before opening it up on the 4,000-foot runway across the field into the wind.

A sudden gust just as the ship lifted from the ground, threatened

About The Folks

Mrs. M. Wally and son, Bruce, of East Strand are visiting with relatives in Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Coy, Russell Coy, Chester Coy and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eckert all of Clintondale spent the week-end at Lake George.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Margolis of 109 Wurtz street and their three daughters returned home Sunday following a week's vacation in Pittsburgh.

M. L. Edinger of Cowesett, Rhode Island, has returned home after a week-end visit with his mother, Mrs. Alice Edinger, of 57 West Chester street.

Clifford Bunting of the Tweedie-McAndrew force left Wednesday on a vacation trip through the south, expecting to go as far as New Orleans.

A. S. Nowell and Rodney Brewer, of 15 Green street, are visiting Mr. Nowell's brother, Captain D. H. Nowell of Brooklyn. They will also spend part of their vacation in Atlantic City.

Miss Ethel Mausterstock of 103 Hone street has returned home after an extended motor trip through the New England states. She will resume her classes in piano and elocution on Wednesday, September 9.

Michael Keating, master mechanic in charge of the police department cars, is recovering nicely from an operation he recently underwent at the Kingston Hospital. He expects to be able to leave the hospital some day next week.

Miss Helen Powers of East Chester street has returned after a pleasant two weeks' vacation spent with relatives and friends up-state. While on the trip she visited Albany, Troy, Schenectady, Saratoga, Auriesville, and other points of interest.

Agree to Cooperate

Burgos, Spain, Sept. 3 (AP).—The two strongest groups in the rebel provisional government agreed to cooperate today after reorganization of the Fascist Supreme Council. The "Nationalist" group bound itself to the "Carlist" war council although both voted to subordinate their decisions to the command of the rebel generals—Francisco Franco and Emilio Mola. The Carlist council, organized from the traditionalist party, was headed by Manuel Fal Conde. It has established provincial organizations in 12 provinces. Gen. Miguel Cabanellas is the head of the provisional government.

Satisfactory Price

New York, Sept. 3 (AP).—Dr. Shirley W. Wynne, president of the Greater New York-New Jersey Milk Institute, said today its members have arrived at a satisfactory price adjustment with its producers. Wynne said he had not received an invitation to the Syracuse conference of producers and distributors, tomorrow in an effort to avert a threatened strike of farmers who demand higher prices but added: "Members of our institute who purchase milk from the New York Milk Federation undoubtedly will be present at the conference."

Social Justice Unit 3

There will be a meeting of Unit No. 3 of the National Union for Social Justice on Friday evening, September 4, at 8 o'clock, in the Leventhal Building, 288 Wall street. A large crowd of members is expected to be in attendance at this meeting as matters of extreme importance are to be discussed. Any citizen of voting age who believes in the 16 points of Social Justice will be gladly welcomed at the meeting as a new member.

Killed in Explosion

New York, Sept. 3 (AP).—A man tentatively identified as Benjamin G. Smith, 52 (of 310 East 44th street) was killed today in a gas explosion in a Knickerbocker Village apartment. The explosion tore out part of a wall and shattered several windows.

Peanut Declared Member of Bean Family; Not Nut

The peanut is not really a nut. It is a vegetable, belonging to the bean family. In the South it goes under the lowly name of goober or pindar, states a writer in the Detroit Free Press.

The peanut has an interesting personality. It is often called the burrowing bean, because after the flower fades the plant stems bend over from a height of about eight inches and, like an ostrich hiding its head, bury the pods in the ground to mature. In the late summer and autumn the nuts are thrown out of the ground with a digger, and then dried in piles or stacks for four to six weeks.

The peanut plant originally came from Brazil, was carried to Africa during our colonial times, and thence arrived in the United States on slave ships. Before the Civil war the peanut was little known outside of Virginia, North Carolina and Tennessee; but when the Union troops went back to their homes they took along with them a liking for peanuts.

United States production is still less than one-tenth of world production, some 70 per cent of which comes from Asia and about 20 per cent from Africa. The peanut is essentially a tropical plant and grows only in our southern and southwestern states. About half the domestic production comes from the three states of Virginia, North Carolina and Tennessee. The other half, almost, comes from South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Mississippi.

Copperhead Snakes Have

Hour-Glass Shaped Spots

The distinguishing features of the copperhead snake are its two tones of copper coloring, with patches of dark coloring in the shape of an hour-glass being imposed on the lighter copper, or almost tan, coloring of the snake. The patches of dark coloring run at right angles to the snake, with the narrow part of the hour-glass being on top of the snake's back and the broad portions spreading down the sides. The copperhead never gets to be more than three feet in length and its fangs are on an average of one-quarter of an inch long. Like all of the venomous snakes, writes Otto Fuerbringer in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, it is a pit viper and has a distinguishing pit mark on the side of the head between the eye and the nostril. This, however, can be seen only at a close distance.

The banded, or timber, rattlesnake is the largest and most poisonous one in this area. It will attain a length of six feet and its fangs get to be three-quarters of an inch long. It has a geometric arrangement of black chevrons on a gray background and its tail is all black. For this reason it is sometimes called the velvet-tailed rattlesnake.

Cardinals Win From Giants by 4-3 Cutting Their Lead to Three Games

(By The Associated Press)

Lady Luck has given Bill Terry the cold shoulder.

After making Colonel William her special boy friend for weeks, she turned her back on him yesterday for the first time since his astonishing Giants started their drive to the top of the National League, and just about handed the Cardinals a 4-3 win over the New Yorkers, cutting their lead to three games.

It happened in the seventh inning. With the Giants out in front 3-2, second-sacker Burgess Whitehead collided with young Stu Martin and suffered a deep cut under his right eye.

Terry had to call on the erratic fielding Mark Koenig for replacement. Koenig batted his first two chances, and the cards cashed in for three runs and the ball game.

With the Cubs also winning yesterday—downing the Dodgers 4-0 behind Tex Carleton's seven-hit pitching—the red-hot race remained a three-way fight. The rest of the league was rained out.

The Yankees also had their league lead shaved somewhat—but not to any dangerous extent. Johnny Allen, the Yank castoff, came back with the Cleveland Indians and held the homelike squad to three hits for ten innings, turning in a 4-3 win on the strength of Earl Averill's homer in the extra frame. The defeat shortened the Yanks' margin to 16 games.

The Browns turned on the heat to out-slug the Athletics 13-11, with the aid of three homers, and give Connie Mack's crew the American League cellar.

While the White Sox and Red Sox were rained out at Boston, the Tigers got some fine pitching from Jake Wade and Vic Sorrell, who, between them, held the Senators to three hits for a 3-2 victory.

(By The Associated Press)

Tex Carleton, Cubs — Blanketed Dodgers with seven hits. Johnny Allen and Earl Averill, Indians — Former's three-hit pitching stopped Yanks for ten innings; latter won game with homer in tenth. Harlan Clift, Browns — Hit homer with two on in 13-11 win over Athletics. Ducky Medwick, Cardinals — Tripled to drive in tying run, and scored winning run against Giants. Jake Wade, Tigers — Held Senators to three hits.

Big League Scout To Be in Kingston On September 12

"Bun" Rourke, co-manager with Eddie Coughlin of the American Legion teams, announced this morning that he had seen Val Picinick, New York Giant scout, and that he would come up to Kingston to take a look at the local talent on Saturday afternoon, September 12.

Picinick was to have been here last Saturday and both teams were alert to battle it out at the Athletic Field for his benefit when a hard rain forced a postponement.

The noted major league scout is being brought here through the efforts of the American Legion to give the local diamond stars a chance to show their stuff and prove that there is a possibility that a player or players of big league calibre are on some of the local teams.

City League Game Postponed by Rain

The fourth game for the City League title being played off by the Hedricks and Kasichs was rained out last night at the Athletic Field. The clubs will meet on Friday evening at 6 o'clock. The starting time has been shifted 15 minutes earlier on account of the shortening of days.

Stanton Brewers To Play Kristics

The Stanton Brewers will cross bats with the Kristics A. C. at Rensselaire on Labor Day. The two teams met earlier in the season with the decision going to the Kristics in a hard fought game.

Dewey Van Horn will probably get the call for the Brewers with Rider or McElrath catching. Rask and Yoness will work for the A. C.

Auspicious Card Of Boxing Bouts at Woodcliff Friday

The Hudson Valley Golden Glove shows presented every Friday night at Woodcliff Park in Poughkeepsie now coming down the homestretch of the outdoor season will present its most auspicious card of bouts this week.

Norman Rubio, the Aneran CCC bearcat, will make a bid to reverse his only loss of the year when he tangles with "Wildman" Eddie Steele of Poughkeepsie in one-half of the double windup. The other feature bout will bring together Bill Gusk of the CCC camp at Staatsburgh and the West Pointer Tommy Cains which should be one of the best middleweight matches presented thus far.

The supporting bouts are mostly in the middleweight division showing boys who are clamoring for a shot at the winner of the main go.

Joe Sabo of Hudson, recognized as one of the toughest boys in the Hudson Valley, will meet the ever reliable and popular Harry Porter of Millbrook. Larry Palumbo of Newburgh, who did very well in last year's Daily News Golden Glove tournament, will make his debut in Poughkeepsie with Hank Jackowski of that city, who had won five out of six bouts and showed the earmarks of an embryo champ in most of his contests.

Pete DuBan of Poughkeepsie, who in three bouts to date won them all by the knockout route, gives every indication of developing into a leader in his class and will meet the strongest opponent he has encountered so far in Frank Corcello of West Point.

Melvin Baer, who has repeatedly challenged Rubio and Steele, will get his opportunity to show his wares in meeting Walter "Stiff" Herdon of Poughkeepsie, who upset the dope last week in taking the measure of Bill Becker of Newburgh. The winner of this bout will get a chance at the winner of the main bout a week later.

Canzoneri, Ambers, Both Confident, Are Eager for the Gong

The training stunts are all over with and Tony Canzoneri, the lightweight champion and his challenger Lou Ambers of Herkimer, are eager for the gong that will start them off in their fifteen round bout at Madison Square Garden tonight. Canzoneri's coveted crown is the prize at stake and there are many who think that the old dicer will have a new owner when the returns are all in this evening. Canzoneri rules favorite to retain his title, but the odds have been shortened and it might be even money before they face the starter.

Station WMCA will broadcast the fight at 10 o'clock.

Ambers reported this morning that he was in the best shape of his life and that the pain has entirely left his left arm which was slightly injured in a training bout with Maxie Fisher last Monday. Lou is just bubbling over with confidence. The challenger figures that he is stronger than the champion and thinks that he can outscore the great Italian. Way down deep Ambers thinks that he has a swell chance of stopping the champion.

The other championship bout between Mike Bellosie the featherweight title holder and Dave Crowley, the English champion, also promises to be a lively session. They fought a sizzling draw at the Queensboro Club two months ago and were immediately matched to battle for the championship. Bellosie rules favorite over the Britisher, but the latter has many supporters.

There is a ten round special bout between Rudolfo Baby Casanova, the hard hitting Mexican and Peter Hayes, former Saugerties featherweight. Jimmy Johnston thinks that Casanova is a harder hitter than that other great Mexican fighter of years ago, Aurelia Herrera.

Maxie Farber and Jack Basilio are slated for four rounds in the opening match.

Sixteen Lettermen Form Nucleus for Ohio Grid Machine

Columbus, O., Sept. 3 (AP).—On the shoulders of a flock of sophomores rest Ohio State's hopes of repeating this year as football co-champions of the western conference.

The first-year talent will provide the replacements on Coach Francis A. Schmidt's squad which opens practice next Wednesday in preparation for what Buckeye athletics officials term "the toughest schedule in Ohio's history."

Sixteen lettermen, at least one for every position, make up the nucleus of the tall Texan's team, which once again will play "high, wide-open and handsome" offensive football.

That style of game has carried the Bucks to 14 victories in 16 starts since Schmidt took over the reins two years ago, only Illinois and Notre Dame being able to trip the Ohioans.

The line stacks up as one of the best in Ohio annals, despite the loss of Capt. Gomer Jones and seven other varsity stalwarts.

Only six lettermen are available for backfield berths, and most of them saw but scattered service last year. The returning warriors of the "O" in the backfield are "Jumping Joe" Williams, Frank Anteaucel, Johnny Bettridge, William Henry Harrison (Tippy) Dye, Nick Wenzlik and Jim McDonald.

Sophomores galore are available, as well as a host of 1935 second and third-stringers, but Schmidt's wide-open style of play demands perfect timing and exact ball-handling, and he sees trouble ahead in forming more than one backfield of big league caliber.

"I've invited 64 boys out for practice next Wednesday," Schmidt said. "We know that some of them will be of no value, but we hope to uncover a few good boys to take the place of some of the fine ones we lost. The outlook isn't any too 'prosperous' for we meet Pittsburgh in the second game, and Pitt looks good for the national championship. I don't see how we can get by Pitt on such short notice."

The Ohio schedule: Oct. 3—New York University; Oct. 10—Pittsburgh; Oct. 17—At Northwestern; Oct. 24—Indiana; Oct. 31—At Notre Dame; Nov. 7—Chicago; Nov. 14—At Illinois; Nov. 21—Michigan.

Canzoneri, Ambers, Both Confident, Are Eager for the Gong

Chicago, Sept. 3 (AP).—The prestige of professional football, defended by the National League champion Detroit Lions, still was intact today — although badly bent by an inspired band of former college stars.

Before 76,361 thrilled spectators in Soldier Field, the Lions, led by their ace, Earl (Dutch) Clark, had to stage a desperate last period drive last night to earn a 7 to 7 tie with the All Stars of 1936—who, as seniors, helped make college gridiron history in 1935.

The Stars, rated as the greatest group of the kind ever brought together, were first to score and outplayed the professional titleholders through the first three periods, but a heartbreaking fumble by Alphonse (Tuffy) Leemans of George Washington University, gave the Lions their opening.

Leemans, a hero of the All-Star drive, fumbled on his 23 yard line and Tom Hupke recovered for the professionals. Ernie Caddell ripped through the line for 12 yards, and in three more plays Clark smashed to the eight. Then, as the youngsters concentrated on him, Clark faked a shot at the pile, whirled and darted the ball to Caddell, who darted wide around left end and over the goal.

Clark drop kicked the extra point. The All Stars made their first serious drive in the second period. With the ball on the Lions' 38-yard line Leemans tossed a pass to Frank (Butch) Loeb of Purdue, for 20 yards, and on the next play, Le Vour took the ball from the Minnesota teammate, Sheldon Helse, on a reverse and hustled the last 17 yards. Wally Fromhart of Notre Dame place kicked for the extra point.

Players Advance In Woodstock Tennis Tourney

Kingston Tennis Club players who are participating in the Woodstock tournament progressed to the third and fourth rounds yesterday afternoon on the artist colony courts. Rain interrupted play before some of the matches were completed. They will continue and be finished up by tonight.

Bob Herzog and Stan Hancock both advanced to the third round. Herzog defeated Leaycraft in two sets by 6-1, 6-1 and Hancock beat Milch by the same score. Herzog was then eliminated from play by Hancock in their third round match, by 6-2, 6-3.

Bill Lester was leading Frank Luce, the number one seeded player from Newburgh, by 4-3 when rain forced a postponement. The Fowler-Whitehead match was also called with Whitehead in the lead at 4-1 in the first set.

Dorson, one of the favorites from Woodstock advanced and will play another match this afternoon. Randall Rose and Hank Osterhoudt are scheduled to play a third round match this afternoon and Hancock will play in the quarter finals.

American Golfers Take 2-0 Lead in Walker Cup Tilts

Clementon, N. J., Sept. 3 (AP).—The British are coming but it looks as if they're too far away.

They came in strong yesterday to halve two of the foursome matches that opened the ninth duel with the United States for the Walker Cup—the one international team trophy they never have been able to win. Despite their moral victory, they were left behind two matches to nothing with a possible rout anticipated in today's eight singles matches.

The American team offered their strongest front of John Goodman, Scotty Campbell, John Fischer, Horolds Smith, Wiltier Emery, Charles Yates, George T. Dunlap, Jr., and Ed White for the final push.

All Uncle Sam's forces needed was an even break, and only once in eight matches have the British been able to win four points in hand-to-hand battle. That was in 1926 when the United States came through to retain the trophy by one point, 6 to 5, the closest battle of the international duel.

'COME HOME TO MOTHER AND DAD'

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Britz, aged parents of John and Coke Britz, brothers hunted for a triple killing at Yreka, Cal., have appealed to their sons to come home to them and surrender. In a written appeal to the alleged triple slayers, hiding in the mountains from angry possees, the mother, a Tennessee mountain woman, declared "the sheriff has promised you a square deal." Four Known Dead In Mine Explosion

Logan, W. Va., Sept. 3 (AP)—The number of known dead from an explosion in the MacBeth mine rose to four today with the recovery of two bodies by rescuers digging desperately through a 400-foot wall of slate behind which six more men are trapped.

The blast killed two men outright and spread deadly after-damp fumes through the working, eight miles south of this mountain town.

After several hours digging, the rescuers came upon the bodies of the other two, lying almost buried in muck and debris which filled the shaft.

E. H. Skaggs, triple foreman for the Hutchinson Coal Company, owners of the property, said:

"It's only a matter of a few hours now until we know whether the others in the shaft are dead or not. We've got about 150 more feet of digging to do before we can reach them."

The dead were Elisha Watts, 32, Andy Gazdik, 60, Grover Saunders, 28, and William Refett, 40.

Prentice Farley, a member of the rescue team, came to the shaft and reported:

"I'm afraid they all are dead behind the cave-in."

Those missing were Jack Adkins, 50; Ed Saunders, 40, Negro; Gus Mounts, 33; Tom Tiller, 25; Victor Corillo, 25, and Julius McShane, 45, negro.

Ab Lambert, who was working with Watts and Gazdik, escaped their fate by crawling several hundred feet from the blast area. Comrades picked him up unconscious and carried him to a hospital, where attendants said he likely would recover.

O. G. Schwant, an engineer of the company, also was overcome by the gas and taken from the pit.

A crowd of almost 2,000 gathered about the mine late in the afternoon yesterday, after knowledge of the explosion became known.

Mrs. Bill Refett, wife of one of those trapped and a sister of Elisha Watts, became hysterical after waiting several hours and was led away by friends.

W. H. Meyers, general superintendent of the Hutchinson Company, took charge of the rescue work. With him were N. P. Rhinehart, head of the state department of mines, P. D. McMurrer, department safety director, and several other officials.

Three safety teams from nearby mines were called in and two engineers of the U. S. Department of Mines were ordered here on directions of J. J. Forbes, chief of the Pittsburgh Bureau. The two had been preparing a mine "Safety Day" exhibition in Madison, about 30 miles from Logan.

The law becomes effective October 1. In the case of cars coming into New York from states which do not require reflectors, Mealey said "it's up to the police." He added that the penalty for violation of the new law is a fine not exceeding $50.

The deputy commissioner stated that cars manufactured after January 1, 1935, were required to have reflectors built in, but added he understood many manufacturers put reflectors on all 1935 models. Most of them are part of the tail light equipment.

A law requiring signalling devices on trucks and other vehicles where hand signals cannot be clearly seen, became effective September 1, but Motor Vehicle Commissioner Charles A. Harnett requested police not to enforce it until January 1, 1937. He said manufacturers were unable to supply the signals by September 1.

Visiting cars must have new reflectors.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 3 (AP)—New York state's new law requiring the so-called "cat's eye" red reflectors on the rear of all passenger cars will apply to "any car driven on New York state highways," Deputy Motor Vehicle Commissioner Carroll E. Mealey said today.

The law becomes effective October 1. In the case of cars coming into New York from states which do not require reflectors, Mealey said "it's up to the police." He added that the penalty for violation of the new law is a fine not exceeding $50.

Predicts End of State Milk Board

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Sept. 3 (AP)—Predicting the end of the state milk control board on its birthday next April, the Rev. Thomas R. Hazzard, North Clove Episcopal minister and dairyman, today declared that milk producers throughout New York state will go on strike next Wednesday "without a doubt."

Mr. Hazzard did not give any authority for designating Wednesday as the time for the strike but pointed out that he is personally acquainted with most upstate dairymen and dealers and is constantly corresponding with them concerning the milk situation.

"It is quite a certainty," he said of his prediction. "The farmers want reform. I know they are going to strike. Repeal (of the milk control law) is bound to come before long. All independents are against the control board and next April, the birthday of the board, that group will cease to exist."

Mr. Hazzard said he is organizing producers in Dutchess county and vicinity for the purpose of ousting the State Control Board at the next session of the legislature. He said the Milk Charter, the group he represents, has 10,000 members and predicted that number would be doubled before long.

PRESBYTERIAN MEN'S CLUB ACTIVITIES

The Elmendorf Street Presbyterian Men's Club will start on another busy year this Friday evening when the first meeting of the new season will be called to order by President Allan Coutant. Many folks bemoan the passing of summer and its many activities, but this lively group finds itself enough of work and fun during the fall and winter seasons to make each member feel he is part of a hustling, happy club. Plans will soon be made for occasions of interest to all men of the church neighborhood and congregation and attendance this Friday of all the present members and candidates for admission will assure development of a program which will suit all. Meeting time is 8 o'clock in the church hall.

Gold mining on a commercial scale is again going forward in North Carolina in several sections.

Former President Of A. T. & T. Dead

New Canaan, Conn., Sept. 3 (AP)—Harry B. Thayer, former president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, died at his home here today. He was 79 years old.

A former president of the Western Electric Company, he became vice president of the A. T. and T. in 1909 and was made president in 1919.

Mr. Thayer served as head of the company during the years of the World War, and retired when he reached the age of 70.

He was appointed a member of the Aircraft Board, a $1 a year position, during the World War, by President Wilson.
